Introducing the new Carnegie Center for Art & History

Youth Education Program Menu
Spark
Curiosity, creativity, and learning with hands-on activities delivered by experienced educators.

Who qualifies?
Schools, non-profit community organizations, and homeschool groups in the Southern Indiana and Greater Louisville regions. Must be within 60 mile radius of the Carnegie Center for Art and History.

How does it work?
Choose any combination of the following menu items for a customized program, subject to availability.

Where?
Programs may be on-site at the museum or delivered off-site in the school classroom or community.

Duration:
60-120 minutes depending on selected options.

Age range:
Most programs may be adapted for K-12.

Cost: free!
*There may be an additional cost to for-profit organizations.

Busing reimbursements may be available for your school to visit the museum. To apply through Fund for the Arts, check Teacher Art Grants and 5X5 programs at: https://fundforthearts.org/arts-impact/kids-and-families/everychild/
Combine elements from the menu below to create a customized program for your group!

Programs may be delivered at the museum, in the classroom, and in the community, unless otherwise noted. Program duration depends on the options selected.

Art Programs

Tour the Current Art Exhibition:
Tours may include gallery talk, art appreciation, art-making, storytelling, song, and dance. In Museum only. Adjustable for all ages.

Learning to See:
Basic art appreciation techniques. Adjustable for all ages.

Visiting Artist Workshop:
Artists featured in the exhibitions may be available to conduct workshops based on their expertise. Ages 8+.

Teaching Artist Workshop:
The Carnegie Center’s professional staff will deliver a customized workshop. Content may vary. Adjustable for all ages. Choose one of the below options:

- Time Traveller:
  Exploring history through lost artistic processes.
  Examples: Make-your-own paint or cyanotypes.

- You Are Here:
  Using art to develop a sense of place.
  Examples: Creative maps or public art.

- Art + Justice:
  Addressing current issues through art.
  Examples: Collage and printmaking.

- Tale Tellers:
  Expressive storytelling through images and text.
  Examples: Comics or hand-made books.

Choose one of the below options:

- • Time Traveller:
  Exploring history through lost artistic processes.
  Examples: Make-your-own paint or cyanotypes.

- • You Are Here:
  Using art to develop a sense of place.
  Examples: Creative maps or public art.

- • Art + Justice:
  Addressing current issues through art.
  Examples: Collage and printmaking.

- • Tale Tellers:
  Expressive storytelling through images and text.
  Examples: Comics or hand-made books.

History Programs

View Exclusive Film on the Underground Railroad:
This award-winning film is an excellent introduction to the story of the Underground Railroad, with particular emphasis on New Albany and the Ohio River. 20 minute and 60 minute versions are available. Ages 8+.

Tour the History Exhibitions:
The Carnegie Center has two ongoing history exhibitions including Ordinary People, Extraordinary Courage: Men and Women of the Underground Railroad and Remembered: The Life of Lucy Higgs Nichols. Interactive role play and game options are available. In Museum only. Ages 8+.

Historian for a Day:
Using primary source materials, students discover the story of escaped slave and Civil War nurse Lucy Higgs Nichols. May include group storyboarding activity. Ages 8+.

Art + History Group Workshop:
Inspired by regional history, groups will create collaborative art projects. Adjustable for all ages.

For more information or to schedule a program, contact Al Gorman at agorman@carnegiecenter.org or 812-944-7336.
The mission of the Carnegie Center for Art and History, a branch of the Floyd County Library, is to support the growth and creativity of an engaged, informed, and connected community.

The Youth Education Program is generously supported by:

The Gheens Foundation
Rotary Club of New Albany
2018 A Taste for Art and History Gala
Senior Source Insurance